Notice to Property Owner or Claimant

The property inventory form you received is your receipt for property inventoried by the Chicago Police Department. Keep it in a safe place and have it available when contacting the Chicago Police Department ("CPD") about your property.

You may get inventoried property back by following the procedures detailed below. Information on how to get back inventoried property is also available at www.ChicagoPolice.org. If you have any questions, please contact the CPD Evidence and Recovered Property Section ("ERPS") at (312) 746-6777. ERPS is located at 1011 S. Homan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60624 and is open Monday through Friday (8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., closed holidays).

Property Available for Return to Owner:

If your receipt is marked "Property Available for Return to Owner" you may get your property back by providing the receipt and a photo ID at ERPS. If you do not contact the CPD to get your property back within 30 days of the date on this receipt, it will be considered abandoned under Chicago Municipal Code Section 2-84-160, and the forfeiture process will begin under Illinois Law, 765 ILCS 1030/1, et seq.

If you are in jail or incarcerated, and your receipt is marked "Property Available for Return to Owner," you may get money returned to you by sending copies of your receipt, your photo ID and the name of the facility where you are jailed or incarcerated to: Chicago Police Department Evidence and Recovered Property Section, 1011 S. Homan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, 60624. If the property is money, a check will be sent to you at the facility where you are jailed or incarcerated.

Property Held for Evidence or Investigation:

If your receipt is marked "Hold for Investigation and /or Evidence" and the property is not money and not subject to any local, state or federal forfeiture laws (including narcotics, gambling or prostitution offenses), you may get your property back by getting a court order from a criminal court judge. (See 725 ILCS 5/108, et seq.) You must give the court order, your receipt, and your photo ID to ERPS to get your property back. To find out if your property is subject to forfeiture, you may contact the CPD Asset Forfeiture Unit at (312) 746-7630, Monday through Friday (8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., closed holidays).

If your criminal case is over, and you did not have the judge sign an order for return, you may get your property back by returning to the CPD facility where your property was inventoried. Give your receipt to desk personnel and they will help you get a property release order. You must then bring the property release order, your receipt and your photo ID to ERPS to get your property. Under Chicago Municipal Code Section 2-84-160, you have 30 days to claim your property from either (a) the date of the receipt if there are no legal proceedings involved, or, (b) the final court date of the proceedings in which your property was inventoried. If you do not claim your property within the 30 day period, the property will be considered abandoned and the forfeiture process will begin under the City Ordinance and Illinois Law, 765 ILCS 1030/1, et seq.

If your property is money and not subject to any local, state or federal forfeiture laws, it will be available for pick up at ERPS on the 31st day after the date it was inventoried unless the CPD, the Cook County State's Attorney or another applicable authority obtains a court order or search warrant to retain custody of the property. You must give your receipt and your photo ID to ERPS to get the money back. If you do not pick up the money from ERPS within 60 days from the date it becomes available, a check will be mailed to you at the address provided on the receipt via Certified or Registered U.S. Mail, Return Receipt Requested for the amount of money inventoried, minus the cost of mailing. Inventoried money which is less than the cost of mailing will not be returned by mail. If your current address is different from the address listed on your receipt, it is important that you report your new address to ERPS at (312) 746-6777 to ensure that all future notices about your rights and the status of your property are sent to the correct address. Unclaimed money or checks which are not deposited will be considered abandoned and the forfeiture process will begin under the City Ordinance Section 2-84-160 and Illinois Law, 765 ILCS 1030/1, et seq.

Property Held for Evidence or Investigation That May Be Subject to Forfeiture Under Federal, State or Local law:

If your receipt is marked "Hold for Investigation and/or Evidence" and the incident involves a forfeitable offense (including narcotics, gambling, or prostitution offenses), your property may be subject to forfeiture under federal, state, or local law. To find out whether your property is subject to forfeiture, you may contact the CPD at (312) 746-7630, Monday through Friday (8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., closed holidays). If your property is subject to forfeiture, a forfeiture probable cause hearing will be held within 14 days of the seizure of the property at 50 W. Washington, Chicago, Richard J. Daley Center, Room 1707. Hearings are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 10:00 a.m., except on holidays. To learn the exact date of the forfeiture probable cause hearing, contact the Office of the Cook County State's Attorney at (312) 603-6462, Monday through Friday (8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., closed holidays). For information regarding your rights, see the relevant Illinois statute, 725 ILCS 150/3.5 (for narcotics forfeitures) or 720 ILCS 5/36-1.5 (for other forfeitures). Additional information is available at www.chicagopolice.org. If your property may be returned to you, the CPD will send a letter to the address provided on the receipt directing you how to reclaim your property. If forfeiture of your property is sought, notice of those proceedings will be provided by the Office of the Cook County State's Attorney. If your current address is different from the address listed on your receipt, it is important that you report your new address to the CPD at (312) 746-7630 to ensure that all future notices about your rights and the status of your property are sent to the correct address.

Notice to Finders of Property:

Lost or abandoned property will be processed under Illinois Law which does not provide for return of found property to the finder. See 765 ILCS 1030/1, et seq.
